

ABSTRACT:

E-portfolio is a new education technology; some of the students are not willing to use e-portfolio. e-portfolio features must be designed based on the student's requirements and demands to encourage them to use e-portfolio. Applying features toward employment of fresh graduated can motivate students to use e-portfolio. The aim of this research embeds some new features in e-portfolios related to employment to assist in student to have better job opportunity